BIG TOBACCO'S CUSTOMERS ARE DYING.

But instead of pulling their products off shelves, they're recruiting a new generation of smokers.

Menthol is not just a flavor, it's a way to attract and addict us. Tobacco companies use menthol to mask the harshness of smoke, making tobacco products easier for us to start and harder for us to quit.

And there's nothing just about it.

54% of youth (ages 12-17) who smoke use menthol cigarettes.
